

MASARYKOVA UNIVERZITA PRÁVNICKÁ FAKULTA

Dr. Csongor István NAGY, LL.M., Ph.D., S.J.D.

Csongor István Nagy is a Hungarian academic (tenured at the University of Szeged and Budapest University of Technology and Economics) and an attorney-at-law admitted to the Budapest Bar, specialising in antitrust/trade regulation, private international law and international economic law. He is head of department (International and EU Law) at the István Bibó College of Law, and external research fellow at the Competition Law Research Centre in Budapest. He also lectures at the Mathias Corvinus Collegium. He studied and/or conducted research in Rotterdam, Heidelberg, New York, Vienna, the Hague and Munich.

Csongor István Nagy is a regular speaker at conferences on antitrust/competition, electricity and natural gas market regulation and private international law. He has more than 70 publications in Hungarian, English and German. In 2006, he published a comprehensive handbook on EU private international law (in Hungarian); in 2008, he published a comprehensive handbook on EU and Hungarian law on restrictive agreements (in Hungarian). He is the legal editor of the Hungarian yearbook entitled "Competition and Regulation" (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Institute of Economics).

