

Requirements for the doctoral thesis in the study programme "Legal Theory and Public Affairs"

The content and formal requirements for the doctoral thesis, the abstract of the doctoral thesis, and the conditions for the publication of the original results contained in the doctoral are governed by the arrangements set out in Annex No. 1 to Directive of the Faculty of Law, Masaryk University No. 2/2021, On study in doctoral study programmes.

Submission of the thesis: The thesis is submitted electronically through IS MU (archive of the qualifying dissertations).

Conditions for submission of the defence application: The precondition for applying is successful completion of the state doctoral examination or the concurrent submission of the application for the state doctoral examination - in which case the defence and state doctoral examinations are held in one day.

Dates: Doctoral theses are uploaded to the Information system by the end of the examination period specified in the timetable for the semester. The electronic version of the doctoral thesis is uploaded to the thesis archive in the Information system. The defence or state Doctoral Examination application is via the office (in the same period).

Conditions for applying for the State Doctoral Examination: the student shall apply for the State Doctoral Examination no later than together with the application for the defence of the dissertation.